

NEW VOLUNTEER TRAINING

Kihei Learning Center Conference Room
726 S. Kihei Rd., Kihei, HI 96753

May 29, 2012 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Are you interested in becoming a volunteer with the Office of National Marine Sanctuaries?

Would you like to —

-  Teach the public about humpback whales?
-  Test water quality?
-  Rescue turtles or entangled whales?
-  Conduct educational activities for school children?
-  Make a difference in your community?

Sign up for our training for new volunteers and join an active and dedicated cadre of sanctuary volunteers!

To register, please call 808-879-2818 x 30 and ask for Nancy or Ka`au.

The Hawaiian Islands Humpback Whale National Marine Sanctuary is jointly managed by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration and the State of Hawai'i.

<http://hawaiihumpbackwhale.noaa.gov>

